Mr. Edward A. Freeman
Augusta House
Augusta, Maine

Dear Mr. Freeman:

Congratulations on the publication of your book, HOW TO HUNT DEER, which we have ordered for the library. This promises to be of lasting interest to any sportsman, and it has the advantage of authority from your own long experience.

The copies for library lending we shall purchase but we wonder if you might not be interested to inscribe and present a copy to the Maine Author Collection. Do you know of this permanent exhibit collection of books written by Maine people or about Maine? Started some years ago, it now includes about twelve hundred volumes, varying from cookbooks to religion, from children's stories to novels, from history to art, and all presenting an outstanding collection of books, fascinating and valuable. They attract students and visitors the year round, and are a source of constant pride. We are happy when we can add the name of a new Maine author, and a new Maine book; and we hope that we shall have the pleasure of seeing HOW TO HUNT DEER among these Maine books.

You have our very warm wishes for its lasting success.

Sincerely yours

In Charge of
Maine Author Collection
